ACTION REQUIRED BY THE DESK
During a meeting [ ] on 6 December, he told me in the course of a discussion on Jordan that we should enlist the services of Haj Amin Husayni [ ] for intelligence purposes in coping with the terrorists transitting Jordan into Israel. I told him that we tended to regard Haj Amin Husayni as a has-been as far as politics was concerned and that we had not thought him likely to cooperate on strictly intelligence matters. He said that he thought we were overlooking what could be a carefully limited but useful task for Husayni. He had no specific suggestions to make then, but I suggested that he give any future views on this matter to [ ] [ ]
